

NOT A "FLY COP," BUT FLYING ONE; POLICE AVIATOR

Mile-a-Minute Murphy, First of His Kind, Circles Field
in Aeroplane

To-day New York won the distinction of having the first flying policeman in the world. Commissioner Woods received a telegram informing him of his achievement. It came from Giuseppe Bellanca, instructor in aviation at the Mineola Aviation Park, and read as follows:

"Policeman Charles Murphy to-day made the flight of the entire length of the field. I congratulate you on having the first police aviator in the world."

The policeman, known as "Mile-a-Minute" Murphy, handled the aeroplane with the ease of an old-timer, and dipped and rose, circled and cut other ditches as if he had been born with wings. His first flight alone was watched with keenest interest by the Mineola aviators and he was loudly cheered when he brought his machine lightly and safely to earth.

The flying cop got his soubriquet by making a mile in less than a minute on a bicycle before the days of motor cycles. He was paced by a Long Island train over a track laid down between the rails. He is the crack motor cycle cop of the force and his new achievement to-day puts him in a class all his own. If aeroplane get so thick above and around New York that it will be necessary to have traffic cops for the air lanes it will be Murphy who will have the job of breaking in the new squad.

Bank of France Is Piling Up
Greatest Reserve in History.

Europe Still Taking
GOLD FROM AMERICA

The tide of American gold continues to ebb toward Europe so fast as to cause some apprehension in financial circles. Two millions more were engaged to-day for shipment to Paris, and it is probable that additional amounts will be taken tomorrow. Saturday's steamers will carry more of the precious metal.

Total shipments so far this year amount to $58,000,000. Within the last four days the gold shipments from New York to Europe have been $18,000,000, with probabilities of totalling $20,000,000 by Saturday. Nearly all of this has gone to Paris, where the Bank of France is piling up the largest gold reserve in its history.

Bankers estimate that the United States can stand about $25,000,000 more of this gold drainage without serious effects being felt. The Bank of England began to-day accumulating more gold. It was a small purchase in the New York market, taking $200,000 in gold bars.

CHILD FALLS TO DEATH.

While walking half asleep early to-day, Frances Hoye, four years old, fell from a fourth story window at No. 2213 Eighth avenue and was killed. Her body was found in the street and an ambulance surgeon from Knickerbocker Hospital said death was instantaneous.

The girl is believed to have started to the bathroom half asleep about 1 A. M. instead, she walked into the kitchen and evidently mistook the window for a door and toppled out. Her mother is prostrated by the accident.

IT'S MEN-LESS JOBS NOW AND NOT JOB-LESS MEN

The West Is Calling for 80,000
Workers in the Harvest Fields.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Men-less jobs instead of job-less men in the very immediate future throughout the United States were predicted to-day by Secretary of Labor Wilson.

Insisting upon the labor outlook. The bumper wheat crop, revival of the iron trade, with the consequent stimulation of mining and other associated industries, and continued activity in the textile business, are given by Wilson as his reasons for prophesying prosperity with "lots of work."
